STANDARD DOLLARS.

The Secretary of the Treasury has modified his order of July 13th, relative to standard dollars. Now, the Assistant United States Treasurer at San Francisco is authorized to supply the demand for these coins in all the Territory that is nearer San Francisco than other Government depositories of standard dollars, in sums of $5,000 or less, the expense of shipment to be paid by the Government. According to this order, as we understand it, any person depositing $5,000 or less with the Assistant Treasurer at San Francisco can have the amount in standard dollars sent free of charge to any express office west of the Rocky Mountains. This ought to get enough silver into circulation for the requirement of trade, as merchants and business men can order the coins direct from the Mint and have them delivered free of cost.

There is now and has been for some time past a great scarcity of silver in Nevada, and merchants and others have been compelled to order shipments of silver from banks in San Francisco, and of course pay transportation charges on the same, to meet the requirements of their business.

Senator Pugh, of Alabama, asserts that the South is solid against Wall street on the silver question, and that the lately published expressions of opinion from Southern men are invariably from bankers and others in sympathy with the gold movement, but that the great mass of the Southern people are sound, as are also their representatives in Congress. To a reporter he recently said: "You can say, with positiveness, that the bond between the West and South on the silver question will never be disturbed. The West is even more strongly in favor of silver than the South. There will be no change in the present law regarding silver coinage that will interfere with silver as a medium of exchange. The clearing-houses of New York and London cannot control and dictate to this country, however much they wish to do so."

The bonded debt of Ohio in 1883 was $4,388,095 50. Now after two years of Democratic rule it is $5,400,000 in round numbers. The two years of experiment have cost the people of that State $10,000,000. It is quite possible that these facts may have as much influence in deciding the approaching election in Ohio as any effort of the Prohibition party to divide the Republican vote.

The Eureka Sentinel insists that there is such a county as Roop. The JOURNAL again begs leave to inform the Sentinel that Roop was abolished by the Legislature of 1883, and the territory it embraced is now part and parcel of Washoe, to which county it had always been attached for Legislative, Executive and Judicial purposes.

The State census is now complete, and the total population of Wisconsin is shown to be 1,563,930, a gain over 1880 of twenty-one per cent. The largest gains are in the northern half of the State, where there have been large openings of comparatively new country, due in a great measure to the lumber interest.

The appointment of A. F. Seeberger as Collector of Chicago is applauded by the best Democrats, Republicans and Mugwumps, as Mr. Seeberger is a first-class business man and an educated gentleman whose career in Chicago for twenty-one years has been without blemish.

Delegate Voorhees says he cherishes the strongest hopes of inducing Congress, at the approaching session or the next one, to consent to the admission of Washington as a State of the Federal Union.

Grazing lands are at a premium in Arizona since the President's order driving cattle out of Indian Territory.

THE SILVER QUESTION.

What a Practical Mining Man Says on the Subject.

SPRING CITY, Nev., Sep. 13, 1885.
EDITOR SILVER STATE:—I notice an article in your valuable paper, taken from the Times-Review, regarding the transportation of silver dollars by the Government free of cost. We have also experienced the same difficulty in procuring silver dollars which the Grand Prize complains of, and were informed by the San Francisco Mint authorities that the demand must be made at Washington for standard dollars. Is it possible that the fractional silver taken by the New York banks to the amount of six millions, which the United States Treasurer has taken so much pains to publish throughout the land, must be first paid out to those desiring silver and credited to the syndicate before the "hated dollar" can be given a chance to circulate? What other inference can be drawn?

An editorial headed "Solid for Silver," in the Daily News of Denver, August 31st, quotes Senator Brown of Georgia as having said that Treasurer Jordan emphatically asserted that every proper endeavor was being made to increase the circulation of silver; that Secretary Manning was determined to thoroughly test the silver question by giving the country a chance to absorb as many of the standard dollars as it wanted, and he was bound to make the test as thoroughly as possible. Do the facts substantiate the assertion? Can we have the dollar before the six millions fractional coin has been absorbed by (us) the banks? Is it another dodge to board in the Government vaults the "eighty-cent" dollar, and try to thus convince the people that we should sell our bullion to England at a ruinous discount, so the "lords" can make a handsome profit of 20 per cent. from the India trade, and the national banks can circulate their rags? Do the United States authorities fear to arouse the Lion? Have we, the proudest, the bravest, the freest, the most (should be) prosperous people on earth, become, through our representatives and servants, subservient, truckling tools to foreign syndicates and home bankers, who for money and self-aggrandizement lead us to poverty and destitution?

The Denver News strikes Hayes and Sherman merited blows, but, Mr. Editor, this silver does not seem to be a political question. The Republican leaders showed the cloven foot with the boot off, as it were, but I contend that President Cleveland has taken the sock off, and from the first, after the election was assured, showed the naked cloven hoof.

It strikes me that our arguments and supplications availeth but little. We have quoted statistics which prove beyond a doubt all theories and assertions made by single-standard advocates to be groundless and without data or reason, and the only thought that can suggest itself is that there is "millions in it."

Yours truly,
J. V. McCURDY.

To Beat Civil Service.

A plan to evade the Civil Service law is said to be now on trial in some of the departments at Washington unknown to the President. It is learned upon good authority that a number of laborers and skilled mechanics have recently been placed on the Treasury Department pay rolls at salaries of $50, $55 and $60 per month, thereby evading a civil service examination. These appointments will be utilized in promotions to fill the vacancies caused by any discharges which it may be desired to make in the Third Auditor's and other bureaus of the Treasury, for it has been decided that examinations are unnecessary for promotion.

The Secretary of the Treasury has directed the suspension of George H. Sterling, recently appointed weigher at the New York Custom House, in the place of George B. Bacon, pending the investigation to be made by the Collector of Customs of all the circumstances attending the change in the office. The action of the Secretary is based on the information that the appointment is an improper one.

Senator Warner Miller, of New York, declares that the Republicans of New York and the country will continue to advocate the protection of American industries and American labor, and the maintenance of Civil Service Reform. He is right.

There can be no question but that the President is a firm believer in the Civil Service Reform principle.

Ex-President Arthur is said to receive more invitations to dine than any other man in the country.

The New York Republicans are still trying to harmonize.

THE SALE OF SCHOOL LANDS.

As Affected by the Order of the Board of Regents.

The Carson Free Lance says: Two weeks have elapsed since went into effect the order of the Board of Regents changing the price of State lands along the water courses from $1 25 per acre to $2 50 per acre and $5 per acre respectively, according to location. In this time there have been applications for 320 acres at the advanced price, while on account of the order there have been held in abeyance applications for lands aggregating 3,400 acres. That is, instead of having sold not less than 3,720 acres at the old rates, the State has sold but 320 acres at the new rates. But it is estimated in the State Land Office that had the rates not been changed there would have been applied for within this two weeks fully 15,000 acres, at $1 25 per acre. The order of the Board of Regents may result in swelling immensely the school funds of the State, thus far the results do not indicate it. At some trouble we have consulted many of the leading citizens of Reno and Carson, and as yet have not found one disinterested person who approves of the action of the Board in this matter.

Dead Gone.

The Greenville Bulletin man is evidently stuck on some grass widow. Here is what he says about them: "They are just the ones to captivate. They know just how to 'pull the strings,' as politicians would say. Unusually handsome, versatile, experienced and winsome, they propel Cupid's dart with unerring certainty. They know all the little arts by which the masculine heart is conquered and held subservient to their will. As for old bachelors worshipping at the shrine, they are as buttons on a 'charm string'—too numerous for individual attention. They may pluck the first ripe strawberry of the season, whose nectar should charm the gods; they may shower bouquets of the rarest tint and fragrance, but alas! all are trampled under foot, and the victorious goddess, flushed with triumph, surveys the field in search of prey more worthy of her steel. Her eyes sparkle, and the young man just out of his teens, kneels before the shrine, worships his goddess and imagines all else of earth earthy, and her of Heaven heavenly. He leans his head upon her breast, her tremulous lips touch his—he is gone, everlastingly gone! dead! buried beyond the possibility of resurrection, and the wings of angels hover in triumph over the grave."

Fifth Edition.

A fifth edition of the "History of the Donner Party," will be issued this month. It will be bound in paper, and is intended as a cheap edition to be sold to the trade, on the cars, and to tourists. It will contain everything that was in the fourth edition, including all the illustrations. There will be nearly one hundred pages more than there were in the first edition. Parties who desire a cheap but complete copy of the work should send their orders forthwith to the Truckee Republican office. The price will be $1.

The Carson Mint.

The Free Lance says at the rate of $200,000 per day, of the $3,140,000, $1,400,000 of the silver coin has been shipped to Washington. The last of the silver coin probably will leave the Mint Thursday. There is still on hand $15,000,000 in gold coin and about $900,000 in gold bullion. Some time between this and the 10th of next month this gold coin and gold bullion also will be sent to Washington. It is expected that now there will be a general clean-up, the twenty-four men at work discharged and the doors of the Mint locked. But of course this is only supposition, no order as yet having been received to that effect. As there is around the Mint probably $70,000 of personal property, such as copper, acids, wood, etc., it will be at least two months before there can be a final closing.

Miners' Union Disbanded.

The Spring City Miners' Union, at a meeting held last week, disbanded their organization, and deeded their hall and other property to the public school of the district. The miners notified Superintendent McCurdy, of the Paradise Valley mine, that they would work for $3 50 per day after October 1st. The great depression in the mining industry caused by the unprecedentedly heavy discount on silver bullion, induced this action on the part of the miners, and only four members dissented from the views of the majority.

The Coming State Fair.

A Carson correspondent of the Sacramento Bee says: Heretofore our annual State Fairs have not been noted for the brilliancy of their success, but that of this Fall promises to be everything it should be. A new Association, directly under the patronage of the State, and aided materially by State money, has been organized, and from the amount of space already spoken for by exhibitors, there is no doubt of a creditable exhibition being given.

Legislative Journal.

The JOURNAL takes pleasure in acknowledging the receipt from Secretary of State Dormer of the Senate and Assembly Journals, of the last Legislature at Carson. The books are well and neatly bound, and the typographical execution reflects great credit upon State Printer Harlow.

Eureka County Tax List.

The JOURNAL is indebted to C. C. Wallace, Assessor of Eureka county, for a copy of the tax list of that county for 1895.

The Forthcoming Overland.

A leading feature of the "Overland Monthly" for October will be the first installment of two very important historical papers upon the stormy period of "Governor Alvarado's Administration," the Graham affair, the beginnings of the American Invasion, and the roots of the famous Bear Flag movement. Hon. Theodore Hittell, the author, has had access to hitherto unpublished materials, and he will fearlessly challenge many conclusions of former historians. His work will doubtless lead to wide discussion of the closing days of the Spanish era in California. Prof. Joseph Le Conte has been persuaded to give to the public some "Rough Notes of a Yosemite Camping Trip." The first paper will only serve to whet the reader's appetite for more. These "Notes," written in 1870, will furnish a remarkably fresh and clear idea of the impression made upon a new-comer by Californian scenery and camp-life. "The Rancheria Affair," written by a pioneer of Amador county, will form another of the striking "Overland Monthly" series of articles on early California. A most attractive paper, and one worthy of general attention, will be "A Brave Life," the story of the life and last days of Mrs. John Brown. So complete an account has not before appeared in any magazine. The plucky and widely-known traveler, Miss C. F. Gordon Cummings, will write in her most entertaining style, of "The Great Lama Temple in Pekin." Emile Tracy Swett, whose stories have been so highly praised by competent Eastern critics, will contribute, "A Transported Aristocrat: a Story of Humboldt county." D. S. Richardson will furnish one of his characteristic sketches of the Southern California Coast entitled, "Brindle and Others," a most humorous narrative. A strong aggressive paper upon "Free Library: especially in San Francisco," a thoughtful essay by Warren Olney; also short stories, poems, criticisms, discussions of recent works on Socialism; and an unusual variety of other literary attractions, are also promised for this October issue. Address: "The Overland Monthly," 120 Sutter St., San Francisco.

The Lieutenant Governorship.

Proceedings have been commenced in the Supreme Court by General Clarke, counsel for the Governor, to have the office of Lieutenant Governor declared vacant. In the first place, says the Carson Tribune, the proceedings were for the purpose of having the office of State Librarian declared vacant, but the complaint was amended by permission of the Court to have the office of Lieutenant Governor declared vacant, as provided by law, when the incumbent fails to give the necessary bonds. The argument in the case came up before the Supreme Court Monday and was postponed until to-morrow, in consequence of the absence of Colonel A. C. Ellis, attorney for Laughton.

Winnemucca Races.

Four days races, beginning October 27th, will take place over the Winnemucca course under the auspices of the Jockey Club. The premiums aggregate $2,500, and the speed contests are free for all, except in two races.

Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue, P. J. Dunne, was in town last evening.

Mrs. Governor Adams and Mrs. Supt. Yarrington came down from Carson last evening.

Uncle Geo. Frazer will go home to Wadsworth to-day. He has sold the band of beef cattle he drove up.

Senator Boyle came down from Virginia last night to go out to Mohawk this morning with Chamberlain.

The Locomotive Drop medicine man, while dispensing his wares in Chinatown, had his money box grabbed from in front of him by some tramp. The officers immediately started to hunt the fellow.

The Nevada State Fair at Reno will commence October 12th and continue for one week. The horse racing promises to excel anything of the kind ever witnessed in Nevada, and the same, to insure fairness, will be conducted under the auspices of the Directors of the State Agricultural Society. Ten thousand dollars in purses will be distributed among the fortunate participants. There will also be a number of contests of special interest to ladies.
